Wayne State University Libraries
Gift Form

I understand that accepted gifts become the property of the Wayne State University Libraries. The University Libraries reserve the right to determine retention, location, cataloging and other considerations relating to the gift’s use or disposition. Materials which are not appropriate to the Libraries’ collections or which duplicate existing materials will be sold or disposed of. The sale proceeds of any donated materials are used to provide other types of support for the curriculum and research needs of the universities students and faculty.

Please complete this form and include it with your gift. You will receive a letter acknowledging your donation upon submitting this form; the letter will not state the value claimed by you.
